

LMHI 2025 WORLD CONGRESS

BIOGRAPHY

DR. MED. KATHARINA GAERTNER (MD)

Aarepraxis Bern, Switzerland

Medical studies at the Medical University of Vienna, Vienna, with graduation as Medical Doctor in 2011. Thesis titled “Additive homeopathy in cancer patients: Retrospective survival data from a homeopathic outpatient unit at the Medical University of Vienna” under the supervision of Prof. M. Frass. Currently ongoing clinical formation for the degree of Family Doctor in different hospitals and departments (Internal Medicine, Surgery, Emergency medicine).

Homeopathic formation since 2008 with the “Students Initiative Homeopathy – SIH”, Austria, the “International Academy for Classical Homeopathy – IACH”, Greece with Diploma by Prof. G. Vithoulkas in 2013. Further training at several centers in India (DDres. Pareek, Dr. Bhatia, Allens’ College for Classical Homeopathy).

Between 2013 and 2018 Homeopathic consultant and research assistant at the “Institute of Complementary medicine – IKOM”, Switzerland. All through this position further development of research projects and clinical homeopathic skills, several presentations at international conferences, supervision of doctoral students and participation in students teachings within the medical curriculum. In 2019 research assistant at Charité – University medicine Berlin, Germany and until 2024 research affiliations with the German Witten/ Herdecke University.

Currently working as a General Practitioner and Homeopathic Doctor and active member of the “Scientific Society for Homeopathy – WissHOM” the Swiss and German associations of homeopathic doctors.